Narmada District

- Narmada is a newly formed District in the year 1997. It has four talukas of which Tilakwada was a part of Baroda District and the other three Talukas namely Nandod, Dediypada and Sagbara were part of Bharuch District.
- It is a scheduled area, with majority population of tribals.
- It has border of Maharashtra in the East, and Bharuch District in the West, In the North Baroda District and in the South Tapi District are situated.
- Geographically it is covered by forest hilly area. The villages are small and scattered in groups – faliyas.
- The famous Sardar Sarovar Project is situated in this district in Nandod Taluka. There are number of holy and religious places on the bank of river Narmada.
- The district has no major industries; people are solely dependent on Agriculture and forest.
- Almost more than 50% of cultivated land is irrigated through waters of Narmada and Karjan canals. However in Dediapada and Sagbara taluka there is no major irrigation project and most of the Agriculture is rainfed.

Voters' Participation

It will be our endeavor to ensure that every voter is educated to take part in election process.

Analysis of voters' turnout figure suggests that during the Assembly elections 2002 turnout was 6 to 7% higher in the District as compared to State average, which has increased up to 10% during 2007 elections. Whereas females participation was also higher by 7% in 2002 elections which has gone up to 11.9 % during 2007. This shows that females more active in the process of election in the district.

Figures of Lok Sabha elections of 2004 & 2009 reflects lower turnout of voters as compared to Assembly elections. But if we compare the figures with State average turnout in Lok Sabha elections, it is clear that voter turnout is higher by 19% and 23% during 2004 and 2009 Lok Sabha election respectively.

However, micro level analysis of voters turnout shows that highest voting was 90% and above. Whereas lowest voting was around 14% also. Therefore Polling Stations wise higher turnout needs to be monitored so as to remove any doubt of malpractice as well as Polling Stations wise lower turnout needs to be extensive voter education campaign.

The AC wise and Gender wise details are as under.

STRATEGIES for SVEEP:-

Looking to the turnout figures in 2002 & 2007 state legislative assembly election in the district, the voter turnout rate is higher and there is a marginal difference in female and male voting. However looking for the last parliament election figures, the turnout has gone down during 2009.

The district is having more than 78% of tribal population and they dwell in hilly terrains. The literacy rate of the district which stood 60% in 2001 census has gone up to 73.29% during 2011. However the female literacy rate has increased from 46.06% (2001) to 63.62% (2011).

Therefore strategy to be adopted for this area to increase registration and turnout rate are as under.

- (1) Massive awareness campaign through various communication measures.
- (2) Use of local functionaries and Joint Forest Management Committees in forest areas for educating the people.
- (3) Create awareness among schools, colleges and also among Youths.
- (4) Mobilise Anganwadi Workers & Asha workers and SHG Groups for motivating female voters.
- (5) To resolve the problem of Low Gender Ratio, areas with lower gender ratio & turnout have been identified and special drive with the help of Female employees of ICDS, ASHA Worker, Sakhi Mandal Members, FPS Holders and MDM Worker to verify with the Alphabetical Electoral roll to check the names & to encourage higher electoral registration by females especially in rural areas.

- (6) In order to abolish the reluctance to enroll the Daughters who are to get married in near future, these groups will be used.
- (7) Support of various departments' viz. Railways, Postal department, youth organization like NSS, NCC, NYK, Media, Education Institutes, Banks, etc. will be taken to increase the voter registration with a special focus on women and young voters.
- (8) We proposed to plan for "Jagrutta Rally" to show the importance of being voter and of voting.
- (9) Mahila Mandals, Mahila Samakhya, Sakhi Mandal groups are to be involved for the voting awareness in female voters.
- (10) We have also planned to engage NGOs and Non Political organization to make electors aware of voting.

Organising SVEEP – Institutes to Join

Large no of institutes and functionaries listed below will be mobilised, motivated, trained and will join in a massive campaign of SSR in the months of May and June-12 and later on keep working together for voters' education.

Hindrance in male or female voter registration:

- In Narmada district in both AC "SATIPATHI" group among tribal has cultural command in many tribal villages. This "SATIPATHI" group doesn't believe in Government, thus these people do not come forward or co-operate in voter registration.
- To overcome the hurdle meeting will be organized with the leaders of "SATIPATHI" group to convince them to co-operate the registration and election process.

SSR Voter registration:-

- BLO will be trained in batches after due analysis of the statistical details of the voter registration and voter turn out
- More focus and tie up with schools and colleges for youth registration.
- Special drive for those who have not submitted their photos will be covered through photographer, or by camera team.
- Will be crosschecked and verified whether all those who has EPICs, are they in electoral list or not?
- A MATDAR SAHAYATA KENDRA (voter help center) will be established in each AC.
- The use of website for checking the names of voters & online registration will be popularized through campaign.
- Posters showing the name and contact details of BLO in their respective part will be displayed at central places.
- Alphabetical list of voters will be given to Anganwadi workers to check the names of potential voters.
- Special drive for newlywed couples
- Special campaign in haats and local melas(fairs).
- Tie up with some institutions and non-political NGOs like Adivasi Samajik Kendra Nivalda, INREKA Timbapada, AKRSP, Bharat Seva Sangh etc to performs some Sheri Natak (Street Play) or nukkad at various places to attract youth.
